

OAKY CREEK

MEETING 2 DISASTER RECOVERY COMMUNITY CONSULTATION

Below: Significant bank erosion threatening sugarcane cultivation.

THURSDAY 8TH MARCH 2018

- Venue: Eton Rural Fire Brigade shed, Barrier Street
- Time: 10:00am - 12:00pm (light refreshments provided)
- Speakers: Following on from community consultation Meeting 1, Alluvium Consulting will be presenting the findings of their detailed geomorphic assessment of Oaky Creek.

REEF CATCHMENTS HAS RECEIVED FUNDING TO PROTECT AND RESTORE OAKY CREEK THROUGH THE NATIONAL DISASTER RELIEF AND RECOVERY PROGRAM. CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS WILL BE USED TO FORM OBJECTIVES TO GUIDE A STABILITY ASSESSMENT AND PRIORITISATION PLAN. WORKS WILL BE UNDERTAKEN IN 2018 IN OAKY CREEK.

RSVP

Reef Catchments (Deb Wilkinson) on (07) 4968 4200
reception@reefcatchments.com

Above: Bank erosion threatening an electricity pole.

This event is facilitated by Reef Catchments, through funding from the Queensland Government and Australian Government - National Disaster Relief and Recovery Arrangements.